

MISSION STATEMENT: The staff and volunteers of Catholic Charities Indianapolis are called by the Gospel to uphold the dignity of all people. Guided by Catholic social teaching, we consider it a privilege to deliver compassionate and caring service to help and empower those in need.

Dear Friends,

Our journey. When we think through our lives, there are good times and bad. We often remember the best times as moments along the way; a wedding, the birth of a child or a personal achievement. However, the hard times seem more like journeys. It's funny how the good memories are points in time, usually with a clear beginning and end, while the hard times seem like lengthy paths that will last forever. Shouldn't it be just the opposite?

The history of Catholic Charities in Indianapolis holds a collection of journeys. From people who are temporarily suffering and in need to stories about neighbors in the midst of long, drawn-out trials. For people trapped in the cycle of poverty, many of their memories are paths filled with challenges, chaos and sadness. However, the great thing about a journey is that you never know what to expect. Catholic Charities wants to be that wonderful, unexpected connection – a positive moment along a path otherwise filled with difficulty and distress. Our agency has always had one simple charge: seek out and help people in need. As we embrace that responsibility, we find ourselves becoming part of the journey to provide help and create hope for people who are defeated.

This annual report demonstrates the many ways Catholic Charities aids those who are temporarily lost on their journeys. In the pages ahead, you will see programs, projects, facilities and services designed to help people find their way again. Our staff and nearly 1,000 volunteers helped to serve 69,535 different “travelers” on the journey this year.

We work primarily in Marion and its surrounding counties, and our presence is well-known and respected. As you read through these pages, please consider how you might involve yourself in this journey. There are so many ways to be a part of this love-filled “roadside assistance.” Pray for, volunteer for, advocate for or support us! Your blessings will continue to help those on their journey.

Sincerely,

David J. Bethuram
