

Catholic Charities Social Concerns

Dear Friend in Christ,

We recently celebrated a birthday milestone within my family, my oldest daughter turned 18 years old. Now, I know what you are thinking....it simply couldn't be true that I would be old enough to have an 18-year-old child, but alas, it is true. But I digress... The real reason I wanted to share my daughter's news with you was because one of her items on her "Adult To Do List" was to register to vote. I am proud of her that this was a priority.

Election Day (Nov. 6th) is fast approaching. With each election year, I am often asked "Is there a reason why our U.S. Bishops do not put out a voter's guide?" Ahhh, but they do... It is called "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." It may not be a guide indicating specific candidates to vote for, but it is a wonderful document to assist a voter in forming their conscience on who to vote for based on Catholic moral and social teaching.

"As citizens, we should be guided more by our moral convictions than by our attachment to a political party or interest group. When necessary, our participation should help transform the party to which we belong; we should not let the party transform us in such a way that we neglect or deny fundamental moral truths or approve intrinsically evil acts. We are called to bring together our principles and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a civilization of truth and love." (no. 14)

In this short document, the U.S. Bishops speak on how we are called to apply our Catholic teaching, particularly our rich tradition of Catholic Social Teaching, to major issues such as:

Human Life from Conception to Natural Death
Promoting Peace
Marriage and Family Life
Religious Freedom
Preferential Option for the Poor
Health Care
Migration
Catholic Education

Forming
Consciences

for Faithful
Citizenship

A Call to Political Responsibility from the Catholic Bishops of the United States

Promoting Justice and Countering Violence
Combating Unjust Discrimination
Care for Our Common Home
Communications, Media, and Culture
Global Solidarity

“In making these decisions, it is essential for Catholics to be guided by a well-formed conscience that recognizes that all issues do not carry the same moral weight and that the moral obligation to oppose policies promoting intrinsically evil acts has a special claim on our consciences and our actions. These decisions should take into account a candidate’s commitments, character, integrity, and ability to influence a given issue. In the end, this is a decision to be made by each Catholic guided by a conscience formed by Catholic moral teaching.” (no. 37)

In closing, I would like to leave you with this quote.

"Joy is the happiness of love - love aware of its own inner happiness. Pleasure comes from without, and joy comes from within, and it is, therefore, within reach for everyone in the world." - Fr. Fulton J. Sheen

Communities of Salt and Light: Reflections on the Social Mission of the Parish

This statement offers a basic resource for pastors, parish leaders, and all Catholics seeking to strengthen the social ministry of their local community. The bishops' reflection represents neither major new teaching nor a new national program. Rather, it brings together the principles of our social teaching and local pastoral experience in a framework for vibrant Catholic communities.

Prayer for the Journey

Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe for Justice

Most merciful mother, you came to tell us of your compassion through St. Juan Diego, whom you called the littlest and dearest of your sons. Give your strength and protection to all who live in poverty today, especially the young, elderly, and vulnerable. Plead for them to the Father, that they might experience the Divine Love tangibly in their daily lives, and that all who work for justice on behalf of the poor might grow in fortitude and humility. In these ways, manifest your charity and concern in our lives, that the weeping of humanity may be heard, and all our suffering, pain, and misfortune may be filled with divine comfort and healing. May we always know the peace of being in the cradle of your arms, and bring us safely home to your son, Jesus. Amen.

What is Social Concerns?

Social Concerns encourages the Community to grow in a deeper understanding of Catholic Social Teaching by providing resources and strategies for effective action in parishes, schools and surrounding communities. Most importantly, it calls us to a deeper understanding in living out the Two Greatest Commandments, which is to Love God and to Love our Neighbors, both locally and globally."
